

TRAVEL AND EXPENSE POLICY –DXB - 2025

Purpose

This policy outlines the guidelines and procedures for employee travel and related expenses. It aims to ensure that travel is conducted efficiently, economically, and in alignment with company objectives. All employees are expected to adhere to this policy when incurring costs on behalf of the company.

Scope

This policy applies to all employees who incur travel and related expenses on behalf of the company.

Policy Elements

Travel Authorization

Timeline:

- Vacation leave should be informed and approved at least 2 months prior to the date of travel.
- If the requests are sent any later employees will have to bear the additional flight charges without any relaxation.
- If an employee is planning to take 15 days' vacation leave, the first vacation leave can be taken only after completing 7 months in onsite.
- The second vacation leave can be taken only after completing 8 months from the date of first vacation leave arrival.
- If an employee is planning to accumulate the vacation leave and willing to take 30 days leave in a row, he/ she should have completed 17 months in the organization mandatorily.
- All the vacation leave requests should be approved by the IRP, Department Head and the HR.

Travel Expenses

Expenses Limits:

- The budget limit for the Travel tickets is 45k (Direct Flights)
- However, if the flight charges are available at a lower cost than the given limit the team proceeds to book the same. Employees are not allowed to have an appeal over this.
- If employee's destination location does not have direct flights, the team will proceed booking with the connecting flights.
- The charges for connecting flight may vary from 45k and the management takes the final call on the approval.
- If the flight charges are higher than the given limit, the team will request to adjust the vacation dates accordingly or if the employee does not wish to change the travel date the additional costs of the tickets will be deducted from the employee's salary either in the very month or the upcoming pay cycle.
- Employees are not allowed to have any preference on the airlines or specific flight however they can inform if they prefer to travel during the day or night.
- Baggage capacity depends on the airline and any additional baggage charges will not be sponsored by the company.
- During the vacation leave, the Cab claim is applicable only from employee's respective accommodation to Dubai Airport and vice versa. The cab expenses from Indian airport to their destination cannot be processed for claim. The maximum claimable amount is 200 AED both ways.
- Though the booking request is sent before 2 months, the tickets expenses should not exceed 45k, if the flight charges are higher during your travel date due to seasonal demands the team will suggest on connecting flights or date adjustments to which the employee shall agree. If the employee is not willing to accommodate with this arrangement, the additional flight charges should be borne by the employee only.
- All the flight tickets are exclusive of meal. Employee can add it at their own cost.
- Any claims for the expenses that is spent in the airport (Food, Beverages) cannot be reimbursed.

- All the cab claims should have an invoice with AED currency reflection. Any other wise cannot be processed.
- Discussion of ticket charges with other employees are strictly restricted and any such appeal brought up for an explanation will lead to ticket rejects of either parties or more.

Emergency Leaves

- The company does not sponsor for any emergency leaves.
- The travel tickets for the emergency leaves have to be booked by the employees at their cost. This includes the cab charges and its claims.
- Towards the security, employees are requested to submit any of their Original educational document, pay plus card and the company provided assets to the HR/Hospitality personnel before their travel.
- Employees are expected to check the airlines websites with PNR for flight updates of any delays/reschedules/web-checkin's. Hospitality team shall not be accountable for the same.

This policy is effective from 1st January, 2025 and applies to all employees. Please note that this policy supersedes any previous travel and expense policies.

Disclaimer: The management reserve all the rights to amend/alter the policy as and when required.