LEAVE POLICY 2025

OBJECTIVE

The company recognises that employee needs time off from work to ensure work life balance as well as for meeting various other needs, social obligations or personal exigencies. This policy provides leave options available to an employee.

APPLICABILITY

The policy is applicable to all the permanent employees and will not be applicable for employees in their probationary period.

LEAVE CYCLE

- Leave year for accounting purposes would be from 01st Jan of a given year to 31st Dec.
- Leave should be planned and approved in such a way that it does not affect the business adversely. Respective managers should ensure that the leave plan does not impact the business schedules or revenues.
- The responsibility of obtaining sanction and submission of leave lies with the employee.

CASUAL LEAVE

To provide leave to attend to personal / unforeseen circumstances.

Applicability

- An employee is entitled for twelve (12) leaves in a year on pro-rata basis (i.e., one leave in a month)
- Casual leaves need to be applied at least 3 days in advance to the leave start date.
- Casual leaves cannot be combined with sick / vacation / marriage / wellness / maternity leave.
- Unused casual leaves will be encashed at the end of the year and shall not be carried over to the next year.
- Leaves can be availed in units of half a day to maximum up to 3 days only.
- Casual leaves can be availed only inside the country (Dubai).
- Casual leaves combined with week offs should be approved by the RM and Department Head.
- Casual leaves without prior approval will be considered as LOP only without any relaxation.

SICK LEAVE

To provide during ailment.

Applicability

- An employee is entitled for six (6) leaves in a year.
- Sick leaves can be availed only inside the country (Dubai).
- An employee can avail minimum half (1/2) a day sick leave at one time and maximum up to two (2) days without producing medical certificate (implies consultation / pharmacy documents).
- Sick leave availed for more than two days should be supported with medical certificate (implies consultation / pharmacy documents).

- Sick leaves cannot be combined with casual / vacation / marriage / wellness / maternity leave.
- Unused sick leaves will lapse at the end of the year and will not be encashed or carried over to the next year.
- Sick leave should be notified at least two (2) hours before the shift commences. Any otherwise will be considered as LOP only.

VACATION LEAVE

- An employee is entitled for 15 leaves in a year (excluding the travel days) with prior approval from TL / IRP, manager, Department Head and HR.
- Vacation leaves will be approved in alignment with the business needs and timeline of the request being sent.
- The vacation request should be sent two months in advance for the approval and ensure to get the tickets booked within the given time frame (i.e., before 2 months).
- Vacation leave can be clubbed with marriage leaves attaching a proof of marriage invitation.
- In any unfortunate cases, if the employee fails to board on the travel date company will not hold any accountability for re-booking of the tickets or re-adjustment of leaves.
- First vacation can be availed only after completion of 7 months in on-site.
- Employee can also avail 30 days of vacation leave when he/she completes 17 months in on-site.
- Second vacation leave can be taken only after completing 8 months from the first vacation return date.
- Any additional day request along with vacation leave will be considered as LOP only and LOP should not exceed more than 3 days.
- Unused vacation leaves can be encashed at the end of the year.

- An employee is entitled to 5 days of marriage leave.
- Marriage leaves will be approved only when an employee submits his/her marriage invitation.
- Marriage leaves can be combined with the vacation leaves only.
- Marriage leaves cannot be encashed or carried over to next year.
- Marriage leaves should be notified two months in advance.

WELLNESS LEAVE

Objective: To provide women during their menstrual cycle.

Applicability

- Women employee is entitled for 3 wellness leaves in a year.
- It can be availed in units of half (1/2) a day to maximum up to three (3) days.
- All the leave applications should promptly be approved by the RM to avoid LOP.
- Wellness leave cannot be combined with any other leave types including week offs / calendar holidays.
- Leaves applied in combination will stand rejected and processed as LOP.

MATERNITY LEAVE

Objective: To provide female employee during pregnancy or at the time of delivery.

Applicability

- An employee has to complete 2 years tenure with the company to opt for maternity leave, which can be up to 3 months.
- If an employee applies maternity leave prior to two years tenure, the leaves will be considered as LOP only.

LOSS OF PAY

- LOP is also an authorized form of absence and cannot be taken at own will.
- LOPs can be applied on exhaustion of all other available leave balance of an employee.
- Number of LOPs allowed is at the discretion of manager / management and cannot be claimed as a matter of right.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

- All the leave applications should be communicated over an email addressed to the IRP / Manager copying your Department Head and POC HR in the loop. Channelling the leave applications through any other platform will stand rejected (excluding vacation leave).

- Any type of leave except vacation leave should be approved by the IRP or can be approved by the Manager / HR in the absence of IRP.
- Leaves which are rejected, pending or not responded to, will be considered as unapproved leave and the employees must report to the duty in such cases.
- No show of an employee or an unapproved leave day will be marked as LOP for the day. If repeats, it will be marked as double LOP for the day at the total discretion of the Management.
- Any leaves can be rejected, if the minimum staffing requirements are not met or if the business demands. Employees shall not have any appeal towards this practice.
- The IRPs / Managers should approve / reject the leave requests by EOD (exclusive of vacation leave).
- Delay in leave approvals will lead to LOP reflection of the concerned employee.
- Overtime (OT) is applicable only if an employee stretches beyond the shift timing or if they work during week-offs. All the OT request should be approved by the TL / Manager in advance and cannot be worked at one's own will.

LOG IN AND LOG OUT

- All the employees are expected to log-in in accordance to their shift timing (whichever is applicable).
- Delay of 5 minutes and maximum up to 10 minutes is allowed thrice in a month to accommodate employees unanticipated emergencies.
- The first late log-in after the 3 given relaxations will reflect half (1/2) a day LOP (irrespective of any time duration).
- Any further continued late log-in will reflect one day LOP for every single late log-in without any relaxation.
- An employee is entitled to have 4 hours permission in a month.
- The permission can be availed in the units of minimum 1 hour and maximum up to 2 hours (not any less or more).
- Permissions taken beyond 2 hours will be considered as half a day leave / LOP.
- Permissions should be notified to the IRP / HR on the very same day.
- Permissions, if not availed cannot be carried over to the following months.
- Only one permission window is allowed either first half or second half and cannot strictly be taken in splits.

- The decision to approve / reject an employee's permission request lies completely within the scope of their respective TL / IRP considering the work exigencies. No appeal should be made by the employee on the same.
- 7 hours of log-in is required if an employee has to avail a permission for the day. Any differences shall be considered as LOP only. Stretching work hours to compensate the insufficient hours will not be encouraged.
- It is not allowed to opt permission and leave on the same day.
- During a half a day leave request, it is necessary that one should complete 4 hours (either first or second half) excluding 30 minutes break.
- Break limit for the full day is one hour and half day is 30 minutes.

This policy is subject to changes and the company reserves all the rights to refuse, postpone, revoke and curtail leaves in part or full
